- (c) A decision by a chairperson under rules 12.5(a) or 12.5(b) is final.
- (d) The contemporaneous linking together by telephone or other electronic means of a sufficient number of the members in person, to constitute a quorum constitutes a meeting of the members, provided each member has a reasonable opportunity to participate at the meeting.
- (e) All the provisions in this constitution relating to meetings of the members apply, so far as they can and with any necessary changes, to meetings of the members by telephone or other electronic means.
- (f) A member who takes part in a meeting by telephone or other electronic means is taken to be present in person at the meeting.

- (d) Unless a poll is duly demanded, a declaration by the chairperson of a general meeting that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or carried by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the company, is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- (e) If a poll is duly demanded at a general meeting, it must be taken in such manner, and either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise, as the chairperson of the meeting directs. The result of the poll is the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- (f) A poll demanded at a general meeting on the election of a chairperson of the meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.
- (g) The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- (h) If the company has only one member, the company may pass a resolution by the member recording it and signing the record.

- (g) A proxy or attorney may not vote at a general meeting or adjourned meeting or on a poll unless the instrument appointing the proxy or attorney, and the authority under which the instrument is signed or a certified copy of the authority, are:

- (i) A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument appointing a proxy or attorney is valid despite the revocation of the instrument or of the authority under which the instrument was executed, if no written notice of the revocation has been received by the company by the time and at one of the places at which the instrument appointing the proxy or attorney is required to be deposited, tabled or produced under rule 12.9(g).
- (j) The appointment of a proxy or attorney is not revoked by the appointor attending and taking part in the general meeting but, if the appointor votes on a resolution, the person acting as proxy or attorney for the appointor is not entitled to vote, and must not vote, as the appointor's proxy or attorney on the resolution.

 - (2) appoint or, in accordance with section 203D of the Act, remove a director.
- (c) Subject to rule 13.1(a) and subject to the individual signing a consent to act as a director, the directors may appoint any individual as a director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing directors.
- (d) A director appointed by the directors under rule 13.1(c), holds office only until the conclusion of the next AGM following his or her appointment under rule 13.1(c).
- (e) At every AGM if the number of directors, (after excluding any directors appointed by the directors under rule 13.1(c) and standing for election or re-election),

A director is not required to retire and is not relieved from retiring because of a change in the number or identity of the directors after the date of the notice but before the meeting closes.

- (j) The company may by resolution at an AGM fill an office vacated by a director under rules 13.1(d), 13.1(e) or 13.1(f) by electing or re-electing an eligible person to that office.

This rule 13.1(k) also applies retrospectively to all current directors at the date this Constitution is adopted.
